

High Sheriff of the West Midlands award for 'Inspiring Others'

This prestigious award was conferred on Stephen Williams by the High Sheriff for the West Midlands; Dr. Keith Bradshaw.

During the Black Country Neurological Alliance (BCNA) event 'Question Time' the High Sheriff presented the award to a colleague of Stephen's Philip Law who received it in his absence.

The award being presented to Stephen by Dawn Carr of Parkinson's UK at a later BCNA informal meeting for supporters of the charity.

Stephen had been nominated by Parkinson's UK for his work encouraging and supporting members of local Parkinson's groups, his BCNA activity and other community and faith work within the Black Country. He was selected by Dr Keith Bradshaw from a number of nominees.

Stephen responded by saying, ' It is a very pleasant surprise to receive this award for doing something I love and am happy to do and I thank Parkinson's UK and Dr Keith Bradshaw for considering me worthy of such an award'.
